

A MEN' S WORLD

by Maria Marinou

Johnny was the son of Tom, a rich businessman and manager of a successful computer company in New York. Tom died only a few months before the start of the play . After Tom' s death, his brother, Paul, became the manager of the company himself and married Jane, Tom' s widow. Young Johnny was worried about the situation. He thought Paul killed his father in order to become the manager of the company himself. One night Johnny saw his dead father' s ghost that told him that his Paul indeed murdered him. Johnny decided to take revenge on his father' s murder and
