by Helen Saveta

Angry bird was the son of King Angry bird, a rich business man and manager of a successful plastic birds company. King Angry bird died only a few months before the start of the play. After the King's death, Evil Angry bird , Angry bird's uncle, became the manager of the company. And he married Queen Pretty Nice bird. One night Angry bird saw his death father's ghost who told him that Evil Angry bird wanted to kill him. So Angry bird killed the uncle and married the Queen Pretty Nice bird.

And they lived happily ever after!!
