

National Archeological Museum

Click on me

Prehistoric Antiquities

These antiquities are representative works of art of the period between the 7th millennium and 1050 BC.

They were created in the area of the Aegean Sea and mainland Greece as well as in Troy. Some of these treasures are presented below with their indicative description by their creation period: Neolithic, Cycladic antiquities, Thera antiquities and Mycenaean antiquities.

Source: <https://www.namuseum.gr/en/collections/>

Neolithic Antiquities

The "Thinker". Large compact figure of a seated man which comes from Karditsa of Thessaly and is from the period of 4500-3300 B.C.

Neolithic Antiquities

"The Nurse". Clay figurine of a woman sitting on a stool with an infant in her arms coming from Sesklo of Thessaly and is from the period of 4800-4500 B.C.

Neolithic Antiquities

Spherical clay vase with polychrome decoration which comes from Dimini of Magnesia and is from the period of 5300-4800 B.C.

Neolithic Antiquities

Gold pin which is decorated with birds on its head. These birds are looking at different sides. This comes from Poliochni of Lemnos island and is from the middle of 3rd millennium B.C.

Cycladic Antiquities

Marble statuette of a standing male figure playing a musical instrument which is called "the double flute". It comes from Keros island and is from the period of 2800-2300 B.C.

Cycladic Antiquities

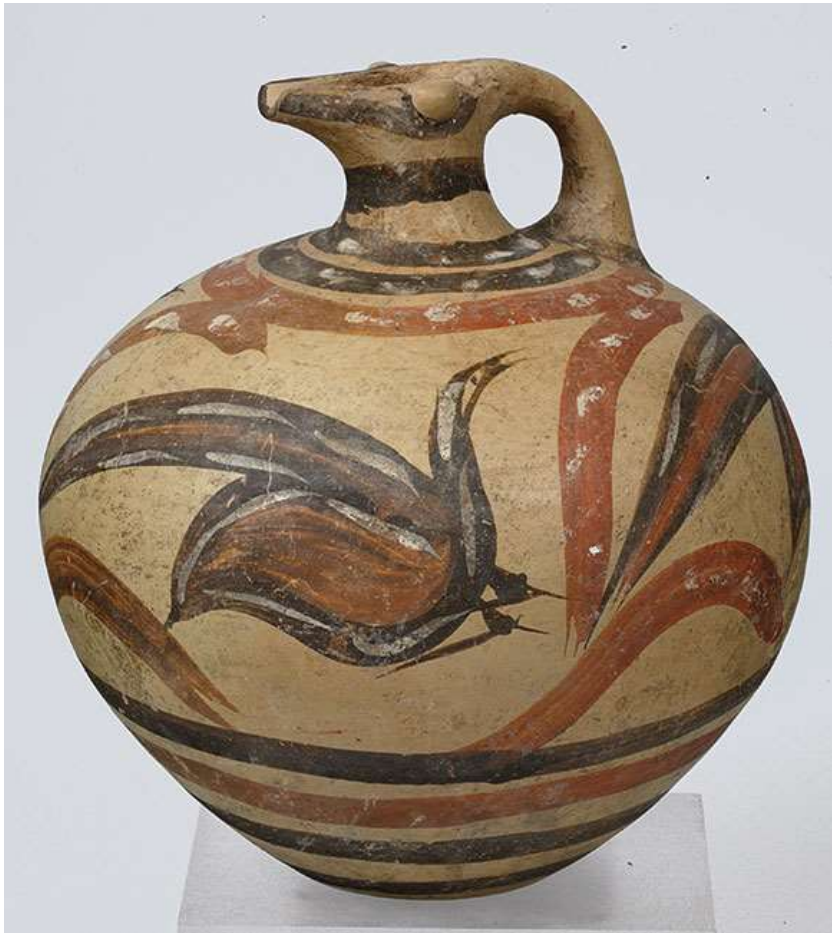

Female statue with folded arms. This statue is constructed from the famous Parian marble. It comes from Amorgos island and is from the period of 2800-2300 B.C.

Antiquities of Thera Island

Large jug vase with painted decoration of grapes. It comes from Akrotiri area and is from the period of the 16th century B.C.

Antiquities of Thera Island

Large jug vase with colourful bird decoration. The formation of the bird depicts its impressive movement and vitality. It comes from Akrotiri area and is from the period of the 16th century B.C.

Mycenaean Antiquities

Gold death-mask known as the "mask of Agamemnon" who was the king of Mycenae and Argos. This archaeological treasure comes from his grave in Mycenae area and is from the 16th century B.C.

Mycenaean Antiquities

Ritual vase named as "rython" in the shape of a shoe. It comes from Voula area in Attica and is from the 14th century B.C.

Cooperation Team

School Teachers:

Spyridoula Liatsou - Teacher

Petros Dounos - ICT Teacher

Christina Gkanteri - Teacher

Marirena Pagkaki - Social worker school teacher

Eleftheria Pateraki - Special support teacher

Pupils:

Panagiotis

Vangelis

Spyros

Filippos

Antonis

Ioanna

Iasonas

Elena

Petros

Dimitra