

Choose the correct answer (True/False) for the following statements:

T F

- Locke talked about the separation of powers.
- Smith proposed economic liberalism.
- The enlighteners agreed with the methods and views of the Catholic Church.
- Descartes regarded doubt as the only solution to true knowledge.
- Federico II of Prussia refused to apply any principle of the Enlightenment.
- The Enlightenment movement first appeared in the 18th century in France.

Choose the correct answer (True/False) for the following statements:

T F

- Locke talked about the separation of powers.
- Smith proposed economic liberalism.
- The enlighteners agreed with the methods and views of the Catholic Church.
- Descartes regarded doubt as the only solution to true knowledge.
- Federico II of Prussia refused to apply any principle of the Enlightenment.
- The Enlightenment movement first appeared in the 18th century in France.