

A white grand piano is the central focus, positioned in a room with light-colored walls. Sheet music is open on the piano's music stand. A potted plant with large green leaves sits on the piano's top surface. A dark red, tufted piano stool is visible in the foreground. The entire scene is dimly lit, creating a soft, atmospheric mood.

Marilyn Monroe

Mary kouri

Backstory

- Marilyn Monroe, a legend who changed the world with her life and opinions. She is known as an actress, a model, a singer and a writer because of her many appearances in the 50's and the 60's. The famous Hollywood star was born on 1st of June, 1926 in Los Angeles under her real name, Norma Jeane Mortenson. However she had a long, and difficult journey to find success.
- Unfortunately, Marilyn grew up in a foster family since her mother, Gladys, couldn't raise a child due to her mental health problems. So Norma was forced to go from foster family to another and also spend some time at the orphanage until she moved in with a family friend named Grace McKee Goddard at the age of 11. Throughout her entire life she faced many difficulties such as abuse and sexual assaults which scared her for life.

"How did Marilyn become famous?"

- Marilyn Monroe firstly begun a career as a model and later on she made a contract with an acting agency at 1946. Her first ever film was "Dangerous Years" in 1947. Although men where enchanted by her beauty on the screen her leading roles started taking place after 1953 in "Dont Bother to Knock" where her career thrievied and she became famous for her sex appeal and comedic, serious acting in fimls like Blondes, Seven year Itch, Some like it hot, etc..

How did Marilyn Monroe change the world?

Marilyn was thought to be just a dump blonde but she was so much more than that. She was a strong woman right's activist in a time when women had no rights and also she was the first woman to get script and director approval in her films. She had a strong opinion which she needed to express since she was an early advocate of civil rights with a strong impact on the world. Her ambition, her femininity and independence inspired a lot of young women and men.

"How did Marilyn Monroe die?"

- Sadly, Marilyn's life was short, after her divorce with her latest husbands Joe DiMaggio and Arthur Miller she passed on August 4, 1962 at the age of only 36 as police claims , it was a suicide and the decision she made. She was found in her apartment in LA laying on her bed. Although the case is still pulling many young people to discover it further, thinking of a personal vendetta being the cause of her death and also considering the idea of a murder instead of a suicide. Still, there is no evidence for such accusations to this day so it remains an unsolved mystery for many who believed: "Marilyn wouldnt just end her life."

5 Facts about Marilyn Monroe

- Despite the amount of successful movies she played in, she was never nominated for an Oscar.
- She had problems memorizing lines from the script.
- She didn't have any children although she really wanted to.
- She was married three times
- Her husband was sending her flowers on her grave three times a week for 20 weeks.

