"Safe Steps: Our Road Safety Journey": Plan of Action
Ελένη Κίτσιου

Objectives:

- To educate young children about the importance of road safety through engaging and age-appropriate activities.
- To foster collaboration among students from different countries by sharing their learning experiences and creative outputs.
- To develop creativity and self-expression through art related to road safety
- To culminate the project in a virtual art gallery showcasing the children's work accessible to all partner schools and parents.

TASK	DESCRIPTION	TIMING
1. Getting to know each other	Being drivers of our own magic cars we present our names/age. We can record their names as well. We'll upload our presentations on a Padlet 1st live meeting: we introduce ourselves and sing to our partners our favorite song we can use "chatterpix" to present ourselves as drivers	Sept – 15 Oct
2. Introduction to Road Safety	Activity: Introduce the concept of road safety through stories, songs, and videos. Use simple and relatable scenarios (e.g., crossing the street, traffic lights, pedestrian crossings). Task: Each class creates a "Road Safety Mascot" (a character that represents road safety) using crafts. The mascot will guide them through the project. Concept mapping: what we know about road safety and what we want to know (2 concept maps)	15 – 31 Oct

The "Safe Steps: Our Road Safety Journey" project successfully achieved its objectives, fostering collaboration and learning among all participating partner schools. Children from different countries were introduced to the importance of road safety through engaging activities such as creating road safety mascots, making posters, and illustrating road safety rules. The project promoted creativity, with students expressing their understanding of road safety through art and digital platforms. Virtual meetings provided an opportunity for partners to share their creations, including road safety songs, stories, and poems. A collaborative road safety dictionary and a shared presentation on traffic laws strengthened the exchange of knowledge across schools. Tools like Padlet were used to share class materials, and Google Slides and Canva facilitated the creation of visual content. Students contributed to an online art gallery (ArtSteps) showcasing their work, while eTwinning served as a central hub for communication and resource sharing. Regular live meetings on Google Meets allowed for real-time interaction, enhancing the sense of connection. The project's success lies in the shared commitment to road safety education and the seamless integration of digital tools, creating a dynamic, collaborative learning experience for both students and teachers.
