What is Christmas Lent

by Giorgos Lathouris

Christmas Lent is the forty days before Christmas. During Christmas Lent we fast (don't eat) to remember that Christ was born for us. We must not drink milk, we don't eat chicken, eggs, pork, beef, lamb. But we eat fish until December 17th. At Christmas we go to church and take the Holy Communion.

Christmas Customs of Greece

by Maria Zaimi

On Christmas Eve, children sing the carols. They sing the carols in their neighbourhoods or their villages. They sing them with their musical triangle or other musical instruments and the people give them money or sweets. On New Year's Day we prepare "Vasilopita" and we hide in this cake a coin. When we cut the Vasilopita, the person whose cake has the coin, it means his year will be lucky!

Christmas sweets we love to eat

by Konstantina Kougia

In Greece at Christmas we eat traditional sweets that mothers and grandmothers make. These sweets are: apple pies, "kourabiedes", "melomakarona", "diples" and "Vasilopita", a cake with a coin inside. My favourite Christmas sweet is Vasilopita.

wishes

All we wait is the Christmas Eve
It's very wonderful for all the kids!
In the house there is a Christmas tree
You can make a wish
Maybe a day it will be true
Santa brings us the presents
Every day it's magical!
Yes! Christmas is for all!
All my wishes will be true,
All I want for Christmas
Is peace all over the world!

HOW I SPENT LAST CHRISTMAS

by Sindy Ismael

Last Christmas I spent my holidays in Albania. When I arrived in Albania, I felt so happy, because I saw my relatives, my cousins and especially my grandmothers. We celebrate Christmas in Albania the same way we do in Greece. The only different thing is that in Albania the kids who sing the carols don't get money. They get sweets. All the family decorated the Christmas tree, the house and also the balconies. At Christmas dinner we ate salad, chicken with potatoes and for dessert we ate nut pie. When the next day arrived all the houses and streets were covered with snow. It was beautiful!

Christmas Time

Christmas is very nice
 Because I have my birthday.
 At Christmas people eat lamb.
 At Christmas Santa brings presents.
 At Christmas people decorate
 The trees and the houses.
 The children say the carols.
 The children play with the snow.
