

HELLO TO EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU!!!

This whole situation feels awkward for all of us and I feel bad that I am wishing Happy Easter to all of my students via computer. However, I'm sure you are making the best out of this situation, giving value to time! Imagine yourselves in ten years describing this experience to others.....it will probably seem science fiction to them!

You can take the opportunity to take part in the writing competition if you wish; Mrs. Christina has informed you of this competition which you can take part both in Greek and English if some want to. It's until the end of April. If someone decides to write in English send your writing to me and if you need any help let me know.

Of course there's no homework for you but I did want to share some useful links that you can visit and do the work without sending me any answers. It's for your own practice! I hope you like it! I am also sending you a worksheet with useful expressions for writing essays-εκθέσεις.

NOTE: some of you wrote that you liked the two songs from the Beatles worksheet so I thought you may want to listen to some more of that time.
