One day Persephone, the daughter of goddess Demeter, cut a flower.

Then, Pluto got out of the Earth and grabbed her.

When Demeter found out what happened, she got upset and the plants of nature began to die.

Zeus decided that Demeter should spend some time on Earth and some time on Hades.

When the daughter is with her mother, it is the time of Spring and Summer.

When Persephone is back to Hades, nature is sad, it is Autumn and Winter.
