Ways of integrate them into community.

We mentioned quotations from the texts

Children decided whether they agree or disagree

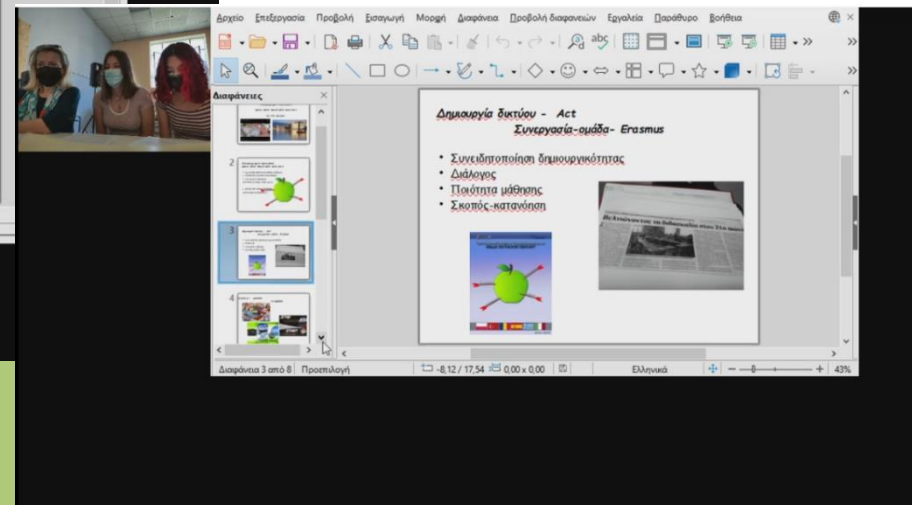

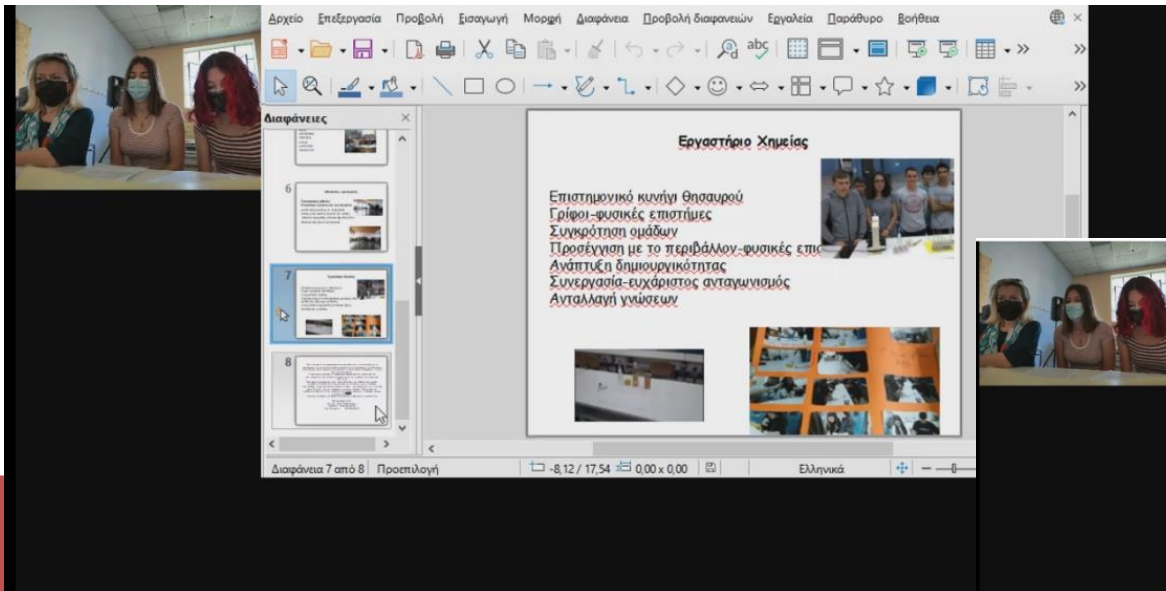

we talked about them before reading the texts and after

During pandemic time our school was in collaboration with some other schools in Greece under the umbrella of The Ministry of Education.

A greek school net was created and we are going to go with this collaboration this year too

We presented on line on May 21st our erasmus project

Puberty

Objectives:

Teenagers to know:

There is no adolescence without problems, without pain. It is perhaps the most painful period of life but also the period of the most intense feelings of joy and love. The teenage period plays a big role in the life of all of us. So they have to face the hardships and continue to pursue their dreams and the pursuit of true happiness.

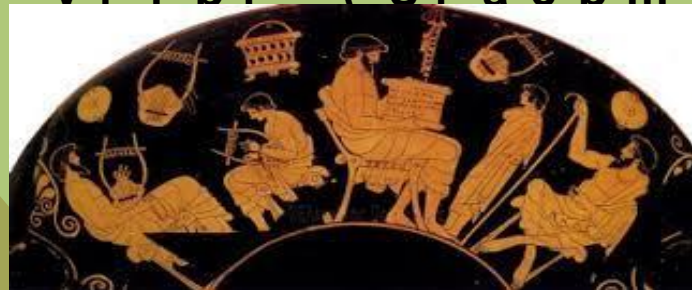

In ancient Greek language

The Protagoras sophist in the 5th century BC narrates Prometheus' myth in order to prove that all people are equal and can participate in politics, which is why democracy is the best system.

Í Thus equipped the people at first resided in small groups. and there were no cities. So they were destroyed by beasts, because they were always weaker than them.

So they sought to bring many together and make sure their salvation by building cities. but when they were gathering, they were harming each other, because they didn't have the political art so back again they were scattered here and there and destroyed. Jupiter then because he was afraid of our gender, lest he disappear, he sends Hermes to bring people respect and
