

What's the meaning of the following verbs?

HEAR vs LISTEN TO

Hear
A sound/noise comes into your ears without you making an effort
Did you hear that noise?

Listen to
When you pay attention and try to listen to sound
Are you listening to me?

The diagram shows two ears. For 'Hear', three red arrows point towards the ear from the left. For 'Listen to', one red arrow points from the ear towards the right.

See
I see this cat everyday

Look at
Come look at this picture

Watch
He is watching a movie

The diagram shows three eyes. For 'See', three red arrows point towards the eye from the right. For 'Look at', one red arrow points from the eye towards the right. For 'Watch', three red arrows point from the eye towards the right.

Quiz Time

MY KIDS LIKE ____ MOVIES AT HOME.

(A) Seeing

(B) Looking at

(C) Watching