

Erasmus+

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

Course:

“Coaching in educational contexts to reduce early school leaving”

Alcalá de Henares, 5-11 March 2016
(Madrid-España-Spain)

We certify that,

KLIMANTAKI, Aikaterini

has successfully attended the 30 hour training course “Coaching in educational contexts to reduce early school leaving” held in Alcalá de Henares and reached the following learning outcomes:

1. Acquire knowledge about early school leaving situation in different European countries
2. Acquire knowledge and practical skills on EFT about innovative methodologies and tools oriented to know and handle students' emotions and discomfort
3. Practice and get confident with methodologies to motivate and involve students at risk
4. Solve and reduce stress levels and develop the necessary abilities to manage emotions
5. Improve interpersonal relationships within the education environment
6. Identify limiting and negative beliefs and transform them into positive and supporting ones
7. Analyse bullying, aggressive behaviour and violence, both physical and verbal
8. Overcome anxiety within the classroom
9. Learn a variety of tools and resources to apply in the classroom to create well-being
10. Understanding what causes bullies to act in an aggressive manner and finding ways to help them resolve the causes of their aggression
11. Using EFT to reduce anxiety before exams, for both teachers and pupils, enabling pupils' to give a true reflection of their knowledge and skills

Alcalá de Henares, 11 March 2016.

Dr. Fernando García
Cervantes Training Manager