

What do you know about Billingsgate Roman Bath House?

By Anastasia Brown, Helen Holmes, Anna Rowling and Rebecca Christie

It was built in the 2nd century AD by the Romans. This house was built next to the river Thames. It had five parts: the courtyard, the east wing, the north wing, the west wing and the bathhouse. The bathhouse was built in the 3rd century AD and it comprised of a frigidarium {cold room}, a tepidarium {warm room} and a caldarium {hot room}. It was found in 1848.

Now you can visit it in 101 Lower Thames Street. The house is open every Saturday from April to November.

Adult: £9

Concession: £7

Booking fees apply
