

An interview about the London Dungeon with Mr. Rapton, an actor from London Dungeon

By Eleni Holmes, Katerina Potter, and Stavriana Bond

- Hello, Mr. Rapton! Welcome to the (b)LO(g)NDONERS! We would like to ask you some questions about the London Dungeon.

- Hi! I'm happy to be here with you. You can ask me anything you want.

- Great. Let's start. Our first question is: What is the London Dungeon?

- So, the London Dungeon is a walk-through experience that recreates scenes from London's scary history. Take the medieval lift into the depths of the dungeon and begin your journey. Along the way you'll have a close shave with Fleet Street barber Sweeney Todd, you'll investigate the mysterious identity of Jack the Ripper, and discover the dreadful secrets of the torture chamber. Not for the faint-hearted!

- Awesome, our next question is: Where is it?

-The London Dungeon is located on London's South Bank, a short walk from Waterloo mainline and London Underground stations.

- Is the London dungeon actual?

- It was established as a tourist attraction in 1974. It has become one of the city's most popular sights and the hotspot for tourists and travellers.

- Is it scary?

- The London Dungeon is dark, noisy, and it can be a little scary.

- How much do tickets to the London Dungeon cost?

-Tickets to the London Dungeon cost £28 per person.

- Thank you very much for the information you have given us.

- My pleasure!
