

THE LONDON DUNGEON

By Elizabeth Malfoy and Fotini Weisz

The London Dungeon is a tourist attraction and a walk-through experience which is located on London's South Bank in England. It recreates scenes from London's scary history.

The experience is a 90-minute walk through many attractions that can be visited by people of all ages. However, the recommended minimum age is 12 years old because it's too scary.

People can visit it every day of the year except for Christmas Day. The opening hours change during the year. Tickets cost £24 per person.
