

"A Fortress, Palace, and Prison Through the Ages"

Historical Background:

- Built by William the Conqueror in 1078
- Originally a Norman fortress to control London.

Key Features:

- White Tower (the central keep)
- Ravens (superstition says the kingdom will fall if they leave)
- Crown Jewels (still housed there today)
- Yeoman Warders (aka "Beefeaters," the ceremonial guards)

Fun Fact:

- Home to 6-7 ravens with names and caretakers

Child age 5-15: £17.90

Adult age 18-64: £35.80