Earth alert!

What is supposed to protect us,
seems to threaten our home, the earth!

Introduction

- A walk through the small town we live in, is enough to prove the fact that the recent epidemia, that threatens human lives, puts in danger the earth itself, as one can recognize another kind of rubbish, sanitary masks!
- In a way, we protect our own face but we ignore the needs of the face of the earth. We add another kind of litter polluting the environment in which we live and breathe.
- It is time to awake our consciousness and preserve the face of the earth clean, for we walk on it and breathe from its breath.
