MONUMENTS OF KAVALA

FORTRESS OF KAVALA

The castle of Kavala is on the top of a hill. It was built in the past to protect the city from enemies. If you climb it, you can see the amazing view!

“KAMARES” OF KAVALA

Kamares is a huge stone aqueduct in Kavala. It was built in the past to bring water to the city. It has big arches and looks very strong.

ANCIENT THEATRE OF PHILIPPI

In Roman times, Philippi was the most important city of eastern Macedonia. Today, we can visit the ruins and see the famous old theatre.

EGNATIA ROAD

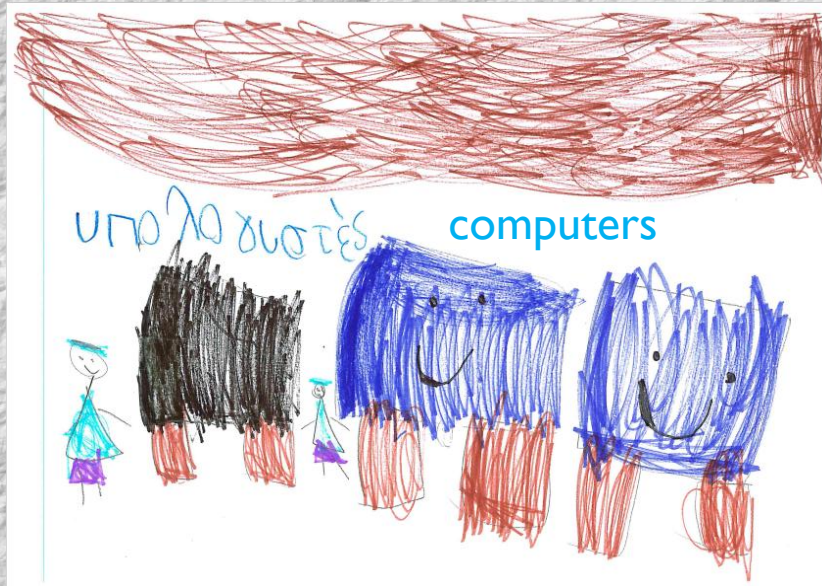

The old Egnatia road was an important road in ancient times. It connected many cities and helped people to travel and trade. Parts of it still exist today!

The new Egnatia road is a big highway in Greece. It connects many cities, including Kavala. It follows the path of old Egnatia road.
