STORY

Paul McCartney wrote 'Let It Be' about a dream he had. In this dream McCartney saw his mother. The dream occurred to Paul during a stressful period. In an interview with 'Wired', McCartney said: 'She came to me in the dream. It is a magic moment, because you are actually there with your mother. So she seemed to know that I was a bit stressed out and she said: 'Don't worry, it's gonna be fine, just let it be... I thought that was a great idea for a song.'
