

TRADITIONAL GAMES IN ART

Welcome to our Virtual Museum!
This gallery is the result of a creative partnership between nine schools. Together, we explored traditional games in art, transforming classic masterpieces into living animations. Through research, AI technology, and hands-on artistic activities, students from different countries worked together to re-interpret history. Enjoy this journey where the past meets the digital future!

