

General Secretariat for Greeks Abroad (GSGA)

World children hospitality program in summer camps in Greece.

The General Secretariat for Greeks Abroad is hosting hundreds of expatriate Greek children aged 8-12 at its camps in Malesina (Prefecture of Fthiotida). It has been offering this opportunity to children of Greek origin living abroad since 1983, when it was founded.

Hospitality programs are aiming at the establishment or preservation and strengthening of bonds of emigrant young Greeks with their parents' homeland.

Beneficiaries of attendance: Children of Greek origin must fulfil the following conditions:

- At least one of their parents must be of Greek origin.
- To be between 8 - 12 years old.

Expenses: The expenses to and from Greece, as well as the accommodation and outdoor/ indoor activities are covered by the GSGA.

Duration: 20day camping period in July

Program: The program includes:

- Learning courses of the Greek language.
- Visits of historical and archaeological places and museums.
- Teaching of traditional dances.
- Attending of musical events, theatrical shows etc.
- Excursions