

Scotland

Created by Evaggelia Vasileidou

General things about Scotland

- Scotland is a country that is part of the United Kingdom.
- The capital city of Scotland is named Edinburgh.
- The Currency of Scotland is named Sterling, the UK/British Pound.
- One pound is equal to 1euro and 14 cents.

Traditional food of Scotland

- Cullen Skink is a hearty soup that is traditionally made with smoked haddock. The name of this soup comes from Cullen, a small town in the northeast of Scotland. Skink is the Scottish term for a knuckle, shin, or hough of beef, so most soups made of these parts were called skink.
- Deep-Fried Mars Bars are a Mars-brand chocolate bar covered in batter then deep fried in oil.
- Haggis is meat made of sheep heart and liver

Deep-fried Mars Bar

Cullen Skink

Haggis

Traditions

- The traditional Burns Supper, Hogmanay and St Andrews Day celebrations are still very much a part of Scottish culture but the Scots are now joined on these special days by Scots at heart across the globe.

Credits

- Google images
- el.wikipedia.org
- Willflyforfood.net
- In this project maria almetidou helped