

Municipality of Nea Propontida

About the Place

Municipality of Nea Propontida is situated in the southwest of Halkidiki. It consists of nineteen villages. The capital of the municipality is Nea Moudania.

Things for a visitor to see

First of all, tourists can visit the ancient Cave of Petralona where they can see the head of the oldest man in Europe. Moreover, they can see the byzantine Towers in Zografou and Nea Flogita. There are some ancient ruins in Potidea, too. In addition, they can visit the Museum of Fishing and Boats, as well as the beautiful port of Nea Moudania.

Things to do

Visitors can swim in the blue clear-crystal sea or do sunbathing on the sandy beaches. Also, they can eat local dishes in the traditional tavernas or drink their coffee at the cafes with great view of the sea.

How to get there

Tourists can come to our Municipality by bus from Thessaloniki, by taxi or by in their own car.
