

Little Red Riding Hood

A photo story made by the pupils of the sixth grade (ΣΤ1)

19th Primary School of Thessaloniki

Give this vegetable soup to your granny and don't talk to strangers.

OK, mum. I'll do what you say.

Little Red Riding Hood's mummy gave her vegetable soup to take to her granny.

Where are you going, little girl?

I'm going to my granny. Her cottage is at the end of the woods.

Little Red Riding Hood went to the woods and met a big bad wolf.

I'll eat you, old woman.
Then I'll wait for Little Red Riding Hood.

Help! Help me! It's a monster! It will eat me!

The wolf went to the cottage and ate granny.

What big sharp teeth
you have!

Because I want to eat
you!

The wolf dressed like granny and ate Little Red Riding Hood.

I will save granny. It's time to give you a lesson, bad wolf.

Thank you, woodcutter. I'm grateful.

I'm so scared!

Zzzzz...

A woodcutter saw the wolf and cut its stomach. Little Red Riding Hood and her granny jumped out.

Yuk! Vegetable soup is awful!

I love picnics!

I'm feeling better.

I'm so happy you're OK, my child.

The wolf ate only vegetables. Little Red Riding Hood, her mummy and her granny lived happily ever after.
