This is to confirm that Kondylo Glarou participated in the Project Consultation Seminar for international youth projects organised by the program EUROPEANS FOR PEACE from May 17th to May 20th, 2019 at European Youth Education and Meeting Centre in Weimar, Germany.

The seminar included workshops on the following topics:

- Project financing and financial statement
- Mutual practical exchange on activating methods for seminar and urban spaces
- Let's shine and make projects more visible
- Fund development
- Aims and Evaluation while the Project is Underway
- Using perpetrator documents in historical education
- Finds from a concentration camp
- Racism in youth culture and music
- Quality is no coincidence, but dedicating to details
- Thinking with the pen. Workshop on basic features of visual thinking
- Education, Awareness-raising, Empowerment – The Intervention Sets against discrimination: innovative formats for civic education
- Listen and Draw. Workshop on graphic recording
- Easy encounters – Getting to know methods of applied theatre
- The stage is yours – use it!
- Picture gender – photography workshop
- "Life is moving" – Methods for the practical work with moving images
- Participation in the project: Sharing Responsibility and Decision-making with Young People

In addition, the participants had the opportunity to take part in a guided tour to the Bauhaus Museum Weimar as well as in a presentation of exemplary projects of international school and non-school education. Furthermore, they received individual consultations on their own planned projects.

The Project Consultation Seminar is organised by the Foundation "Remembrance, Responsibility and Future" in cooperation with the European Youth Education and Meeting Centre in Weimar (EJBW) and is part of the grant approval procedure of the funding program EUROPEANS FOR PEACE.
