Best in English contest takes place mostly in the European Union countries and the surrounding states, but is available in every country of the world. You will therefore get the opportunity to compare your results with many other high schools from various countries.

The organizer of the Contest is the Institute for Competencies Development, a non-profit organization and the Czech-us, a student work and study abroad agency.

The purpose of the competition is to motivate young people to expand their knowledge of English language and to allow the schools to compare their language competencies with other institutions from their country, Europe and the rest of the world. This competition also allows English teachers to make their lessons more engaging. The test will be available online for further use after the release of the final results.

In case you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact us anytime. We will be looking forward to your registration to the Best in English contest!

On behalf of the Best in English organizational team I wish you a great day.
