

Human rights

Lesson:English
Students:Efthimia Papa
Ioanna Valdouma

- Occasioned by the human rights day we have decided to present some ways to celebrate this important day . Human rights are rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Human rights include the right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, the right to work and education, and many more. Everyone is entitled to these rights, without discrimination.

Ways to celebrate human rights day

- Share videos, posters (slogans), speeches and photos to social media.

Deliver questionnaire of human rights

- Which human right do you think is more important..?
- Freedom of opinion and expression
- Freedom of religion and thought
- Freedom to movement and residence
- Do you think that we are all free and equal?
- YES
- NO

Deliver questionnaire of human rights

- Everyone has the right to education. Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.
- Do you think that the above sentence is in force nowadays and why ?
- What do you think decrimination is?

Present a video about human rights to students

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ew993Wdc0zo>

We are glad for your time! Thank you so much for the watching!

