The plot of the book

- ▶ Hermia loves Lysander, but her father insists that she marries Demetrius. Hermia and Lysander run away in secret to get married. Helena loves Demetrius, but he wants to marry Hermia. To win his favor, Helena tells Demetrius that Hermia ran away with Lysander. Then they both follow the couple into the forest. Oberon tells Puck to put some love potion in Demetrius' eyes to return Helena's love. But, by a puck mistake, both men fall in love with Helena. In the end Puck corrects his mistake and puts all the lovers to sleep and when they wake up everything is fine. All the characters wake up and think they had a weird dream and eventually the two couples get married.

Summarizing...

- ▶ I liked this book because the writer uses magic and fantasy to create a unique world. The combination of comedy and magic makes the work attractive to the audience.
