Ipirotika Mirologia

(Epirot laments)

Ipirotika mirologia are traditional kinds of songs from Greece, specifically from Epirus and were usually created during, or after a war.

---

The sound of a Miroloi

Three musical instruments are usually heard in an Ipirotiko miroloi:

- The clarinet
- The violin
- The lute

What were these songs about?

The majority of these songs were about a person who had died in a war or emigrated to a country far away from his own. Another subject of the Ipirotiko Miroloi was the love for a woman.
