

Dear teachers and students,

I welcome you to Greece and to our school. I wish you a wonderful time in our country. Although today there is a strike in our country and mourning for the people killed in the train accident, we have been waiting for you. We are very glad to see you once again. We have planned special things for you and we hope you will like them.

Καλώς ήρθατε. Welcome. Welkommen.