Presentation of our Christmas custom

Καλήν εσπέραν ἄρχοντες, αν εἶναι ορισμός σας, Χριστοῦ τη Θεῖα γέννηση, να πω στ' αρχοντικό σας.

Χριστός γεννᾶται σήμερον, ἐν Βηθλεὲμ τη πόλῃ
οἱ ουρανοὶ ἀγάλλονται χαίρει ἡ φύσις ὅλη.

Christmas Carols

The day before Christmas little children holding their triangles visit every house in the city and knock on the door. They ask the landlord if they can sing to them the carols. If the landlord opens the door and says yes then they start singing about the birth of The Christ, which tomorrow we will be celebrated. When they finish the landlord gives them a few money (a euro).

Melomakarona

In the old times the Christmas carols were being sang by the elders in Christmas eve. When the children started to sing them they were given melomakarona or kourampiedes, the greek traditional christmas desserts because people were poor to give money.
