The Greek Flag

The national flag of Greece has nine equal horizontal stripes of blue alternating with white. There is a blue canton in the upper hoist-side corner bearing a white cross. The cross symbolises Eastern Orthodox Christianity, the established religion of the Greek people of Greece and Cyprus.

According to popular tradition, the nine stripes represent the nine syllables of the phrase "Ελευθερία ή Θάνατος" ("Freedom or Death"), the five blue stripes for the syllables "Ελευθερία" and the four white stripes "ή Θάνατος". The nine stripes are to represent the letters of the word "freedom" (Greek: ελευθερία).

White and blue have been interpreted as symbolising the colours of the famed Greek sky and sea.
