San Giacomo
was built at the end of 1600 by the Venetians. Originally it was used as a club for the rich families of Corfu and later on as a theater. Since 1903 is used as our city hall.

In that photo you can see the bakery in which I work.

marina bay of Gouvia is the biggest and most popular on the island. It welcomes boats from all over the world and provides all kind of services all year through.

In that photo you can see a secret beach which is located at Megas Choros beach in Perivoli. Golden sand, crystal clear waters, wild beauty and serenity, Megas Choros has a length of 3.5 km and is 42km away
