

Tree and flowers plantation!

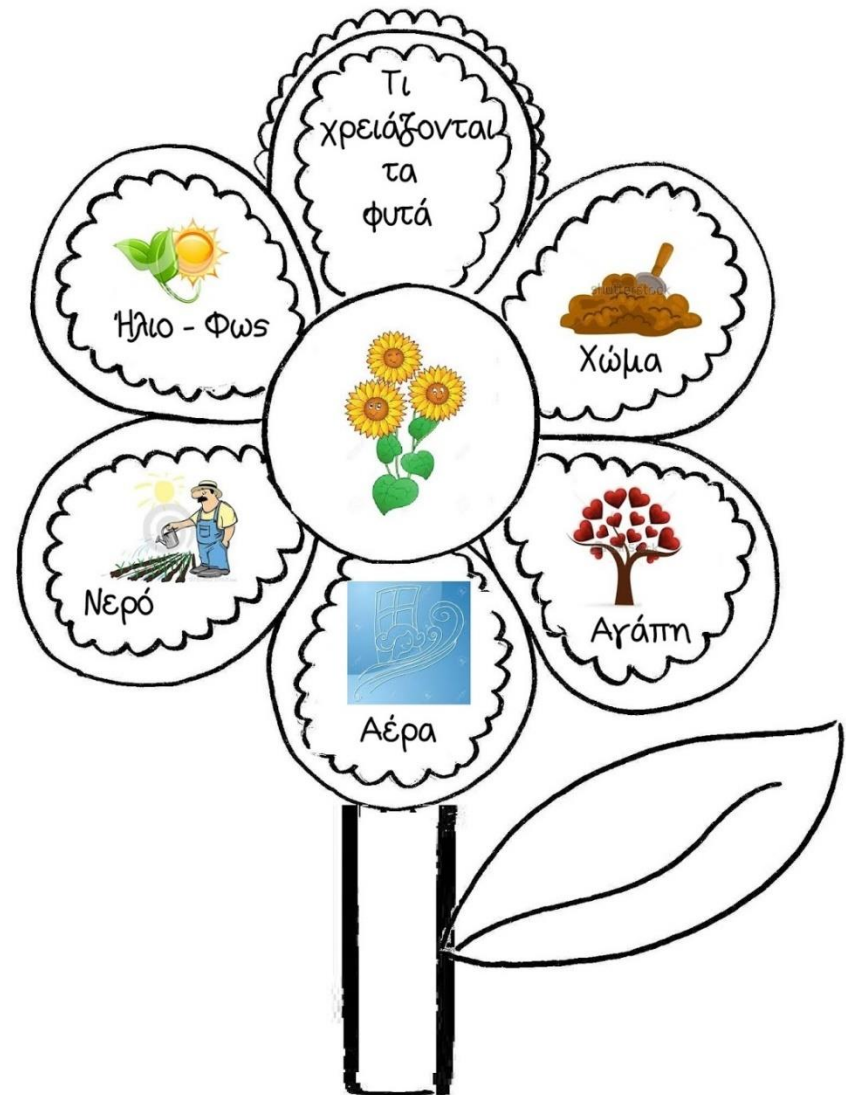

The children and the teachers along with the parents, they planted a bunch of flowers, trees and common aromatic herbs in schools' garden. After those activities, we build a discussion about a healthy environment. To be more specific, we talked about "What does a plant need to grow?". We also read a book that called "The plant is growing".

•

•

Plants need soil, water, sun,
air and love to grow.