

USED TO

A. Put the verbs in brackets into the used to form.

Nick:

When I was a young boy in Jamaica, I 0 used to have (have) a siesta in the afternoon. At night, I 1..... (sleep) in the open air. I 2..... (never/go) to the supermarket because we 3..... (grow) our town fruit and vegetables. We also 4..... (keep) chickens and other farm animals. Every morning, I 5..... (collect) the eggs.

B. Write three sentences about yourself when you were six years old, like Angela's example.

0. When I was six years old, I used to love pop music but now I love heavy metal.

1. When I was six, I but now I (love).
2. (like).
3. (hate).

C. Put the verbs in brackets into the Past Continuous or the used to form.

1. In Jamaica, we(go) to church twice on Sundays but now we don't.
2. She (have) a shower at 7 o'clock this morning.
3. Every day, Len (take) Wolfie for a walk but Angela does it now.
4. When Angela was a baby, she (cry) a lot.
5. Yesterday, when I(eat) a pizza, the police arrived.