

WRITING

Choose ONE of the following options. Write between 120-150 words in English.

1. "As I searched my pockets for the house keys, I noticed that somebody had already opened the door." Continue the story.
2. A pen friend has written to you asking what a typical weekend is to you. Write a letter of reply to him or her with this information. You do not need to write your address.
3. Your local newspaper has asked readers to write an article describing the perfect holiday. Write an article which you could send to the newspaper.

Choose ONE of the following options. Write between 120-150 words in English.

1. "As I walked through the gate, I could smell the roses." Continue the story.
2. It is wrong to keep animals in zoos - they should be in the wild, where they belong, not locked up in cages." Do you agree with this statement? What are the advantages and disadvantages of keeping animals in zoos?
3. Write a letter to a pen friend describing your favourite TV programme. Say why you think it is so good. You do not need to write your address.

Choose ONE of the following options. Write between 120-150 words in English.

1. "It was the worst holiday of my life!" Continue the story.
2. "The UK government is wrong to ban smoking in public places." Do you agree with this statement? Why / Why not?
3. A penfriend has written to you and asked about what kind of music people in your country listen to. Write to him or her and explain what kinds of music are popular in your country, and talk about your favourite kind of music and what you like about it.