PART A: CHOICE ITEMS

ACTIVITY 1

Listen to items 1a-4a and choose the best option (A-F). There are two options that you do not need.

EX: Keeping fit and active in your senior years can be achieved by simple activities such as swimming. You don't need any special equipment – just take yourself to the local pool.

- 1a. If you want something a little more energetic, there are plenty of exercise classes offered for seniors, which teach you how to stretch and bend to keep your muscles elastic and flexible.
- 2a. Even if you have limited movement, professionals can show you how to stretch and move while in sitting positions.
- 3a. If you do want to challenge yourself more, weightlifting exercises are great to do in the gym.
- 4a. Gentle jogging or running is also excellent and can be done outside, or even inside, around the gym.

ACTIVITY 2

Read items 5a-7a, listen and choose the best answer (A, B, or C) for each item.

Good evening, everyone, and a very warm welcome to St Peter's. I am very glad to see so many of you here, and we look forward to working with you during these next 6 years of your children's lives. This period will probably be the most important stage for them, as it is during this phase of their education that they will have to learn to move from the security of childhood to the challenges of facing the outside world as young adults. As you see, there are many people up here alongside me on this stage; these are the department heads and holders of leading academic positions at St Peter's, and as they will also be very important for your children, I'd like to introduce each of them to you. On my left is

ACTIVITY 4

Read items 11a-15a, listen and choose the best answer (A, B, or C) for each item.

Man: Yes, I went to Ireland this summer for a couple of weeks.

Woman: Lovely.

Man: But unfortunately something happened to me just almost the day after I arrived. I was driving along this road from Wexford to my parents' house and it's a very straight road and I was rather enjoying the straightness of it.

Woman: Oh oh! You put your foot down...

Man: I put my foot down, exactly, and suddenly I was aware of these blue lights flashing behind me. And I said whoopsadaisy. So, I said, shall I stop? So, of course I stopped, and this policeman got out of his car. And he was pointing this thing which looked like a gun that might have been used in Star Wars or something. But it wasn't actually a gun, it was one of these cameras.

Man: It was a RADAR gun. And he said "Now do you know that you were going at 120 kilometres an hour?" And I said "Oh really? Was I? My goodness me! I had no idea". "Oh, you were, you were. Now can I see your driving licence?" So I took out the driving licence, and of course it's a Greek driving licence. So he said "Now what kind of a licence is this?" I said, "oh it's Greek." "Oh, I see. Now I'll have difficulty reading that, now won't I? And I suppose I'll have difficulty writing down your address!" So anyway I gave him my address, I spelled it out for him and everything. And I said "Well, I suppose I'll be getting a fine." "Well, you may and you may not. But if you don't pay it, we're not going to hunt you down in Greece".

PART B - SHORT ANSWERS

ACTIVITY 1

Listen and fill in items 1b-5b with the right words, as in the example.

EX: They've got brilliant sales – 60% off all clothes, and 50% off shoes. There's a really nice jacket that I've seen in the window. Let's meet there at 6.00 tomorrow?

1b. I haven't been for ages – I feel so unfit. I really don't feel like going, but I know that I've got to try and get back into shape again. Shall we go for the 6.00 class? I think that it's the trainer we had last time – he's really good. I'll meet you there.

2b. The performance starts at 9.00, right? I don't want to be late, because they don't let you in once the curtain has gone up. So let's meet at 8.15 at the entrance. I've already bought the tickets online.

3b. Let's take them to the one next to the school – mine love going there. And there's plenty of shade. We can sit and have a coffee while they're on the swings. Let's meet around 6.00, when they've done their homework.

4b. OK, let's get the 469. That goes all the way into the centre. I think that there's one at 10.40, but check the app before you leave home. I'll see you there. You've got a ticket, right?

5b. No, I can't come out tonight – my parents are being a real pain and they won't let me go out on school nights. I'll see you tomorrow during first break – on the bench outside the computer lab.

ACTIVITY 2

Listen and fill in items 6b-10b with the right words, as in the example.

EX: Hi, it's Judy. I was so happy to hear the news – a little boy Last night. I hope Sara's doing OK? Give all my love and congratulations to both of them – and of course to you the new grandmother!

6b. I knew you'd do it! You'd studied really hard. Brilliant – the last one, right? And you got a really high grade. So, looks like you'll get your diploma by Christmas, right?

7b. Hi, it's mum. I'm so happy for you – finally a place of your own. I saw a photo of it on Facebook, it looks great. I loved the kitchen, and the living room. And it's a great location, you'll be able to walk to work. OK, I'm dying to come and see it.

8b. Jack hi - just heard the news from Gill – I knew you'd get it! You must have really impressed them at the interview – your experience and skills. They'd have been crazy not to offer it to you. When do you start? Let's meet up and celebrate and you tell me all about it.

9b. Hallo, it's Aunt Annie here. So sorry, dear that we couldn't make it on your special day, but as you know, Uncle Andrew has been very unwell. But we were thinking of you on the day, and your mum has sent us some lovely photos. You looked beautiful! And your new husband so handsome! Will come and visit when Uncle Andrew is better, but we wanted to congratulate you now.

10b. Mr Millington here - ringing to say congratulations on your brilliant performance yesterday. Everyone at school was delighted to hear of your success– all that practice and hard work paid off. Please pass on my congratulations to all the team – and we want to see the trophy at school on Monday!
